How many of these statements from the Black Lives Matter movement do you agree with?

- Every day, we recommit to healing ourselves and each other, and to co-creating alongside comrades, allies, and family a culture where each person feels seen, heard, and supported.
- □ We acknowledge, respect, and celebrate differences and commonalities.
- □ We work vigorously for freedom and justice for Black people and, by extension, all people.
- We intentionally build and nurture a beloved community that is bonded together through a beautiful struggle that is restorative, not depleting.
- □ We embody and practice justice, liberation, and peace in our engagements with one another.

ILO Self-Advocates' Commitment to Inclusiveness

What does ILO's Self-Advocate Commitment What does ILO's Self-Advocate Commitment to Inclusiveness Look Like?	to Inclusiveness Look Like?
We will acknowledge, respect, and celebrate differences and commonalities.	<ul> <li>Invite others with differences to participate in activities with us.</li> <li>Personally encourage people by finding their good points and complimenting them on those values. (You have a great smile!)</li> <li>Take the time to learn about someone new – their background, their history, their family, their culture, their traditions.</li> <li>Share what we learned or found interesting in that process with others.</li> </ul>
We work vigorously for freedom and justice for all people.
